“Big Show and Tell”

January’s program is the “Big Show and Tell.” Bring your new quilt creations to share at this meeting, Thursday, January 20th, at 6:30 pm.

Warm Start 2021

A record was set by Warm Start this year as 94 layettes were given to the following agencies:

Heaven Helpers Closet (23), Custer Health (38), St. Alexius (16) and Sanford (17).

The Committee thanks members for their generous donations. The Guild thanks the Warm Start Committee for their service!

MVQ Needs You!

The SECRETARY position remains unfilled. Two or more members can easily share the duties of this office. PLEASE CONSIDER.

The board is also looking for a member to volunteer to provide a demonstration of a quilt block or a technique that is interesting to them at the March or May meeting.

DUES are DUE
Unpaid members will no longer receive the newsletter after this month.

Thank You to the Christmas Party Committee

GUILD MINUTES

Missouri Valley Quilt Guild
General Meeting Minutes
November 18, 2021

President Sandi Washek called the meeting to order.

Visitors in attendance: Michele Burian and Barbara Zeigler, guests of Donna Nason.

Corrections to minutes: Add Jenny Yearous and Cindy Sorenson to Christmas Committee.

Treasurer's report - Michele reported there is $7855.64 balance in checking account.

National Teacher committee – No new report given.

Warm Start – Barb reported the committee is well-supplied.

Frozen Fabric Frolic- Mary Rasmussen reported Frozen Fabric Frolic will take place Feb 18-20 at Camp of the Cross. The camp has new sleeping arrangement options. Mary will teach the single class offered, “Exploding Heart Quilt,” which is fat quarter and scrap friendly. There are many images of this quilt on Instagram, Pinterest and the Slice of Pi website.

Christmas Party – Barb Emery reported that challenge stockings should be brought to the party. The stockings will be distributed to Mapleview, New Salem and possibly other facilities to be hung on residents’ doors. There will be challenge prizes for all. A wrapped white elephant quilt themed gift should be brought to the party for a game, as well as a potluck item.

Election of officers - Jenny Yearous/Cindy Sorenson moved and seconded to elect Maxine Bondeson to vice president position. Motion carried. A secretary is still needed.

Old Business:

MVQ books will be audited after the National Teacher event bills are paid.

National Teacher committee member Jan Hokenstad reported that the weekend went very well. 62 people attended the Sunday tea. Both classes were filled with 24 attendees. Expenses were covered by funds received. The committee was thanked.

Sandi is working on an dedicated MVQ email address that will link to a member.

House of Prayer donation is due. Marlene Sapa/Pat Conrad motioned and seconded to donate $500 this year. Motion passed.

Show and Tell and “Tips, Tools, and Techniques” program followed.
